(e) 'steps taken and/or are contemplated towards removal of such hinderances and timeframe projected therefor?

THE MNISTER OF STATE IN THE MNISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY: AFFARS (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ): (a- to (e) The Government is aware of the pendency of cases in Courts which is due to various complex factors Some of them, identified by the Malimath Committee, are population explosion, litigation explosion, inadequacy of judge strength, delays in filling up vaoaniies, lack of infrastiuc-tural facilities, long arguments and prolix judcgments, lawyers strike and indiscriminate resort to Writ jurisdiction; etc. No study have been carried out to ascertain the average time taken by the High Courts and the Supreine Court to dispose off a civil suit or a criminal case as the disposal of a case depends upon various factors.

The Government is making all possible efforts to ensure that vacancies of Judges in the Supreme Court and the High Courts are filled up as expeditiously as possible. In order to consider the problem of arrears of cases in Court and find out ways and means to deal with it as expeditiously as possible, a meeting of the Chief Ministers and Chief Justicts was held on 4th December, 1993 under the Chairmanship of the Prime Minister. The Conference recommended several steps in a resolution it adopted for 'speedy disposal of cases in Courts/Tribunals, which have been accepted by the Government and commended to all the State Govrnments/UT Administrations and High Courts/Tribunals for necessary follow up action. Three Working Groups of Law Ministers, thereafter met to consider the recommendations contained in the above Resolution with regard to rural litigation, arrears of cases in adminis-trative tribunals and alternative dispute resolution. The implementation of De-cemter, 1993 resolution and recommen-dations made by the Working Groups were reviewed by the Law Ministers at their plenary meting held in Calcutta in November, 1994. The resolutions adopted in the meeting have beian commended to all the concrnd authorities for necessary follow-up action.

The Administration of Justice has been made a Plan item with a view to re-move infranstructural bottlenecks coming in in the way of expeditious disposal of caess.
